Top Price, $6,300, Is Paid for Inness's "Off the Coast of Cornwall."

IT'S A ROBUST SEA PIECE

Illustrated Copy of Donai Bible Bought by George D. Smith for $6,250.

The sale of the art collection left by John D. Crimmins took place last night a the Anderson Galleries. The leading sice was $6,300, paid for a paniting George Inness, "Off the Coast of fernwall." The buyer was George D.

This Inness was an unusual specimen and instead of the mellow sunsets of Montclair, which occupied his brush so often, this work was a robust sea piece, somewhat in the Courbet style, lowing small boats landing through rough surf on a beach.
The total realized for the pictures was $39,065,50. The list of the princi-

TWO CARDINALS AT FUNERAL. rehbishop Prendergagst Burled is Philadelphia Cathedral.

PHILADELPHIA, March ! .- With all the raditional honors called for by Catholic rubrics, the funeral of the Most Rev. Dr. Edmond F. Prendergast, Archbishop of Philadelphia, was held to-day in the 'athedral of Saints Peter and Paul, Cardinals (libbons and Farley, Archbishop Bonzano, papal representative, more than a scere of bishops, archbishops and monsignors from many parts of the country and hundreds of priests assem-bled to pay their last tribute.

The cathedral, where the Archbishop cordance with the wishes of the Arch hishop there was a note of simplicity at the funeral, which contrasted with the elaborate service of the solemn pontifical requiem mass.

Bishop John J. McCort, the Arch-burg preached the funeral sermon.

MRS. ALICE LAIDLAW DIES.

Specumba to Pacumonia While Sping for Divorce. Mrs. Alice Carrington Rand Laidlaw wife of Loper Baird Laidlaw, against whom her action for divorce is pneding in the Connecticut courts, died of pneumenta last night at Roosevelt Hospita where she was taken a week ago. Mr. Laidlaw is at Spartanburg, S. C., as a member of the 104th Field Artillery. News of Mrs. Laidlaw's death came a great surprise to her friends here well as at Cos Cob. Conn., where sh was socially prominent. In her divorce petition, which was heard last week by committee appointed by Court in Stamford, Mrs. Laidlaw ac-cused her husband of cruelty, and al-leged he had branded her arm with a lighted eigarette after tearing he Clothes from her body.

The couple eloped in Mr. Laidiaw's racing automobile in 1914 and were married at Port Chester Both then were living at Greenwich, Conn. Mrs. Laid-law was the daughter of L. S. Band, a wealthy broker of Minneapolis, and niece of the late Senator Mark Hanna Mr. Laidlaw is a descendant of the Imk de Lopez of Spain.

WORK OF NEW COMPOSER

Music. Still in Manuscript, Given in Public First Time Last Evening.

The Berkshire Quartet, which has been heard here before, gave a concert ast evening in Acollan Hall. The entertainment began with Beethoven's quartet in E minor, opus 59, No. 2, the one in which the composer makes use of the | gelo, Reiss, Ruysdael and Audislo. Papi Russian theme heard also in a chorus of the first act of "Boris Godunov." The of the first act of "Beris Godunov." The d'Or" as a double bill will be given other two numbers were a serenade in one movement by Leo Sowerby and Max sung by Mmes. Easton, Perini and Matt-Reger's quartet in E flat, opus 169.

Mr. Sowerby's work is still in manuscript and was heard for the first time in public. The composer is a young man just a little more than 20, a violinist, and originally from Grand Rapids but now a resident of Chicago. The music heard last evening contained indications of some talent, though as yet in an undeveloped stage. Mr. Sowerby showed a feeling for the type of melody most readily accepted by Americans—melody leaning toward the negro idiom and with syncops rhythm occasionally close to "rag time In treating this melody the young com-poser displayed good taste, which pre-vented him from falling into mere cheapmorning in St. Augustine's Church. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery. His part writing was frequently good and sometimes bad, the latter especially when he made some very youthful at-tempts at bisarre effects in the closing measures. But on the whole the sere-nade, with such faults as it displayed. had enough merit to give ground for hope that he may make substantial playing of the Berkshire Quartet was generally commendable places admirable. In the work faulty intonation marred the per formance. The audience was of mod-erate size, but its applause was most
